Glavé & Holmes Awarded Several New Projects

Richmond, Va. – Glavé & Holmes Associates (G&HA) is in the early planning and design stages of several recently awarded design commissions.

The College of Business and Economics Building at Radford University will be a new, state-of-the art facility allowing all business faculty and business-related research to be located in a single building. G&HA is collaborating with Ayers Saint Gross Architects + Planners.

The Courthouse and Courthouse Facilities Master Plan and Design for the City of Fredericksburg will combine two local courts into a new facility in historic Fredericksburg. G&HA is collaborating with Perkins Eastman Architects.

The Hospitality Studio has begun work on the award-winning Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club in Durham North Carolina. Multiple interior design projects will transform the nationally renowned Fairview Dining Room and Bull Durham Bar among others.

Founded in 1965, the award-winning Glavé & Holmes Associates specializes in cultural higher education, hospitality, interior design, residential and urban design projects. Glavé & Holmes Associates believes that the creation of successful, context-responsive projects requires a collaborative process involving a well-structured design team, the client, the community, and other constituencies. From the firm's inception, this principle has guided its work, resulting in exceptional service to diverse clientele.
